Kildare County Council Library Services

Kildare County Council Library Service is delighted to announce the launch of IDEAS REALISED: Spreading the word...Kildare County Council Library Services Development Plan 2015 – 2019.

Prepared and adopted by Kildare County Council in accordance with legislative requirements, analysis of performance, research and a wide consultation process with staff and stakeholders, the plan builds on existing strengths and synergies. It charts the future direction of our library service through strategies and actions that take cognisance of the changing technological, economic and social profile of Kildare.

The launch takes place on:
Thursday, 23rd April at 10:30am in Leixlip Community Library.

The Mayor of Kildare, Councillor Fiona O'Loughlin and Chief Executive, Mr Peter Carey will be in attendance, with special guest speaker, author Oisín McGann.

RUA, Kildare County Library Services Reading Champion, will also be there!

The Mayor of County Kildare
Councillor Fiona O'Loughlin
