Referrals from Municipal District Meeting to the SPC (March 2019)

Motion – Councillor Suzanne Doyle

That this Municipal District Committee request the Transport, Safety and Emergency Services SPC to examine and identify the number of village or settlements seeking traffic calming measures in the county and scope the feasibility of designing and costing a generic treatment that addresses concerns and that a funding mechanism is identified through the annual budget programme/ levies/LPT/Department funding where any, either or all contribute to the delivery of a schedule of works that will resolve this matter.

Report: If the Members are in agreement, the request can be brought to the SPC on Transport, Safety and Emergency Services to consider including the issue on the SPC's Programme of Work.

Yours Sincerely,

Evelyn Wright
Senior Executive Officer
Roads, Transportation and Public Safety Department
